Why we collect and use Personal Data about pupils and parents

Hunningley Primary Academy and United Learning Trust collect, create and hold personal information relating to our pupils and may also receive information about them from their previous school, local authority and/or the Department for Education (DfE). We also collect and hold personal information about our pupil’s parents and carers. We use this personal data to:

- Provide education services (including SEN), career services and extra-curricular activities to pupils; monitor pupils’ progress and educational needs;
- To safeguard pupils’ welfare and provide appropriate pastoral (and where necessary, medical) care.
- To enable pupils to take part in national or other assessments, and to publish the results of public examinations or other achievements of pupils at the School.
- To maintain relationships with alumni and the school community.
- For the purposes of management planning and forecasting, research and statistical analysis and to enable ULT to monitor the School’s performance.
- To monitor use of the School’s IT systems in accordance with the School’s Acceptable Use Policy.
- To receive information about current and prospective pupils from any educational institution that they attended.
- To confirm the identity of prospective pupils and their parents.
- To communicate with parent about pupil progress and, where necessary, pupil attendance and behaviour;
- To make use of photographic images of pupils in School publications, on the School website in accordance with the School’s policy on taking, storing and using images of children.
- To create invoices and process payments for services such as school meals, school trips etc.
- For security purposes, and for regulatory and legal purposes (for example child protection and health and safety) and to comply with its legal obligations.
- To meet statutory duties placed upon us by the Department of Education;
- To receive reports from any organisation that may be working with your child.
- Where otherwise reasonably necessary for the School’s purposes, including to obtain appropriate professional advice and insurance for the Academy.

- To keep you updated about the activities of the School including by sending updates and newsletters by email and post.
- To organise trips and visits both in the UK and abroad.
